Privacy Notice (When personal data is obtained from a 3rd party)

Octopus Personnel Ltd is a recruitment business which provides work-finding services to its clients and work-seekers. Octopus Personnel must process personal data (including sensitive personal data) so that it can provide these services – in doing so, Octopus Personnel acts as a data controller.

You may give your personal details to Octopus Personnel directly, such as on an application or registration form or via our website, or we may collect them from another source such as a jobs board. Octopus Personnel must have a legal basis for processing your personal data. For the purposes of providing you with work-finding services and/or information relating to roles relevant to you we will only use your personal data in accordance with the terms of the following statement.

1. Collection and use of personal data

a. Purpose of processing and legal basis

Octopus Personnel has collected your personal data (which may include sensitive personal data) and will process your personal data for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. The legal bases we rely upon to offer these services to you are:

- Legitimate interest

b. Categories of data

Octopus Personnel Ltd has collected the following personal data on you:

- CV including name and contact details from an online job board.

c. Legitimate interest

Our legitimate interest in collecting and retaining your personal data is described below:

As a recruitment business and recruitment agency Octopus Personnel introduce candidates to clients for permanent employment, temporary worker placements or independent professional contracts. The exchange of personal data of our candidates and our client contacts is a fundamental and essential part of this process.

In order to support our candidates' career aspirations and our clients' resourcing needs Octopus Personnel require a database of candidate and client personal data containing historical information as well as current resourcing requirements.
